From Cleveland, Ohio, Debora Weber earned a Bachelor of Arts, cum laude at Lake Erie College in Painesville, Ohio near Lake Erie, which included a term abroad studying life drawing at Oxford University's Ruskin School of Art in England. Moving to Philadelphia to pursue art, she studied illustration at Moore College of Art and the University of the Arts. Weber began her career working as a professional illustrator in the publishing industry, transitioning into graphic arts creating illustrations for Campbell's Soup Company. In December 2006 she began exhibiting her paintings.

Weber lives in Penn Valley, Pennsylvania with her husband where they raised a son and daughter. In addition to painting, she enjoys horticulture and sailing on the Chesapeake Bay.
